Great Crowd Insists Upon Being Heard

Public Wants a Hand in Framing the Central Ave. Program

Frank Talk is Heard at a Stormy Session in City Hall

Central Avenue must go thru. That portion between Baldwin and Sierra Madre Avenues should not be repaved.

That portion east of Baldwin Avenue should be made a uniform width of 65 feet.

Confidence and approval of the attitude of Mayor W. F. Thayer, Jr., and Councilman Al Myers. Appreciation of the work of City Attorney Frederick Baker, confidence in his work on the Central Avenue project and resentment at the action of the council majority in accepting his resignation as special attorney on that project.

Those five items sum up the sentiment and definite action taken at the mass meeting called by the Central Avenue property owners association last night. More than 300 people sat thru a session of three and a half hours, with stormy weather prevailing much of the time.

J. O. Smith, president of the association, called the meeting to order. But he had much difficulty in preserving order at times.

Mrs. Jessica Wright, secretary, devoted the first 45 minutes to a detailed review of the Central Avenue proceedings to date. She made a particular point of the fact that the people who have been active in the association have always worked for the opening of Central Avenue through to the west.

From the time Mattoon Act proceedings were started, Mrs. Wright said, property owners found it impossible to get information as to plans and probable cost. Property owners presenting an 80-percent protest against the unnecessary widening of East Central Avenue were told their petition was out of order. The only recourse was to wait until the council had adopted an ordinance of intention, after which protests would be in order. But these protests must represent 51 per cent of the entire district concerned and be directed against the entire improvement, which the association members did not wish to oppose.

Differences of opinion culminated, said Mrs. Wright, in the refusal of the council majority to accept the advice of Attorney Baker as to issuance of immediate possession bonds, resulting in the resignation of Mr. Baker. This so alarmed the executive committee that they had called the meeting to gain an expression from the largest possible number of people as to what course they wanted to pursue.

W. A. Evans then offered the resolution of confidence in Mayor Thayer and Councilman Myers, which was adopted after many seconds by a rousing aye vote.

Attention having been called to the array of legal and engineering talent present to explain all about Mattoon Act proceedings, T. J. Burns Jr. said he thought they deserved thanks for their willingness to assist. However, he suggested that their remarks be confined entirely to facts and points of law, leaving property owners who will pay the bills to decide entirely on matters of policy involving costs.

Special Engineer H. S. Gierlich was then called upon for estimates of costs. He spent half an hour explaining the intricate work of the engineers, to combat criticisms over delay in letting the public in on information as to costs. He then introduced Mr. Hanneman, assessment expert, to give the figures.

After a lengthy explanation of the zoning plan of spreading lots, and the distinction between local and general benefits, Mr. Hanneman got down to definite figures.

On the basis of a uniform width of 80 feet, with 56-foot roadway, permanent paving, ornamental lights, and the county paying for 16 feet of the paving, the cost per front foot for the zone east of Baldwin was placed at $7.25, and west of Baldwin at $7.30.

Actual cost of the improvement east of Baldwin Avenue would be

Another Addition To Literary Circle In Sierra Madre

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Eakman have just taken up their residence at 194 Mariposa Avenue, coming here from Long Beach. They will doubtless find a welcome here in musical and drama circles, as Mr. Eakman is a singer and Mrs. Eakman is an author and playwright specializing in children's stories.

Mrs. Eakman has developed the art of story telling along unusual lines. She makes it an important factor in character development for children. She does a great deal of platform work herself, and conducts classes in story telling, planning to open a studio here.

In accordance with the usual custom, the local post office will be closed Monday afternoon, in observance of Armistice Day. The morning delivery will be made as usual and the general delivery window will be open until 12 noon. Mail received at the office up to five o'clock in the afternoon will be forwarded as usual, according to Mrs. Wright, postmaster.

Times Men On Program At Kiwanis

Bruce Russell and Lee Shippey Tell Club of Newspaper Work

Bruce Russell and Lee Shippey, members of the Times staff who reside in Sierra Madre, provided the program for Tuesday's Kiwanis luncheon and made it one of the most thoroughly enjoyable meetings in the club history.

Mr. Russell, whose work is familiar thru his sport cartoons, football diagrams and portrait sketches, brought along paper and crayons. He then proceeded to produce sketches before the eyes of his auditors which kept them on the alert for developments and always brought a final laugh.

Mr. Shippey, as might be expected from his "Lee-Side of L.A." dwelt upon the human interest side of newspaper work. His humorous observations were keenly relished. And all the while he was laying the foundation for a serious conclusion in which he showed that the fundamental motive of the newspaper profession, regardless of criticism and exceptions, is one of service to humanity. Recitation of some of his own verse added much to the pleasure of his remarks.

Chairman E. D. Burbank of the Kiwanis education committee, presented Austin Gibbs as a new member of the club.

F. B. Seeley Shows Some Improvement At Latest Report

F. B. Seeley, 453 Manzanita, underwent an operation on Monday at the Pasadena hospital where he was taken last Friday. On account of his advanced years the operation was extremely serious. As a Civil War veteran and active in New York state politics, it was a matter of deep regret to Mr. Seeley that he could not go to the polls on Tuesday and cast his regular republican vote for Hoover. This morning his condition was reported as slightly more favorable.

W. B. Temple Goes To Monrovia For Lamb Company

W. B. Temple who has been in charge of the funeral parlors of the C. F. Lamb Company ever since that company entered the local field, has been made manager of the Monrovia establishment. He retains his interest with the company here, however.

W. I. Roberts is now in charge of the local parlors of the Lamb Company. He and his wife and three children, who have been residents of Pasadena, are now occupying the living quarters in the building at 304 West Central.

John G. Cox of Phoenix, Ariz., has been spending a few days this week at the home of his father, Frank E. Cox. John and his brother, Fred, are developing a nice business with their service station.

Policemen Entertain Big Crowd

Valuable Instruction On Precautions in Traffic Is Given

Difficulties of a Crime Career Pointed Out by Police Officials

The annual police night entertainment in the Congregational Church social hall last Friday provided fun and instruction for an audience of about 300 persons. Chairman W. R. Humphries of the chamber of commerce entertainment committee introduced the entertainers and also various police officials who were guests for the evening.

Lieuts. L. C. Kilgore and J. H. Dries of the Los Angeles traffic department showed the motion picture films which visualized the danger which everyone faces on the street, whether driving or afoot. Valuable instructions were given for avoidance of accidents in a way well calculated to reduce the traffic toll. Their hearers especially appreciated the value to the large number of children who listened with rapt attention.

The difficulties of escaping detection after committing crimes were emphasized by Sergt. H. L. Barlow of the finger print bureau and explained what happened when a criminal gets into the police records. Detective Nick Harris gave an entertaining talk on his own experiences in solving crime mysteries. The talks afforded convincing proof that a career of crime is neither profitable nor inviting.

Splendid entertainment was provided by the famous police quartet of Los Angeles. This was well supplemented by "Bob and Monte" of KFI, well known to radio listeners. Preceding the entertainment the visitors were entertained by the local committee and police with an appetizing dinner at the Sierra Madre Cafe.

Monoplane Made From Old Biplane

Belohlavek and Lambert Are Making Successful Flights

An airplane provides a good enough seat for a look over a baseball field, but flying over the mountains without a landing spot within twenty miles is not so good. That is the conclusion reached by Joe Belohlavek, proprietor of the Central Garage, after taking a number of flights in the monoplane which he and Jado Lambert of Monrovia have been building.

And that monoplane is in itself something out of the ordinary, in addition to the fact that it really flies. The fuselage is of the Curtiss "Jenny" type formerly used for army training, and now discarded for a safer ship.

Lambert and Belohlavek decided to make one over and took off the biplane wing structure entirely. This they replaced with monoplane wings of their own construction. In addition the plane was improved by the substitution of a new motor. This is of the OXX6 type, with 100 horsepower and dual ignition. The added power and reduced chances of missing fire make the ship much safer to fly.

Making a monoplane out of a "Jenny" is an experiment which has been tried successfully in the east, but this is believed to be the first instance in the west. The result has been watched with keen interest by aviation enthusiasts hereabouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boardman, Washburn were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Lehner, 550 West Central. Mrs. Kathryn Kinne, sister of Mrs. Lehner, and mother of Mr. Washburn, has been a house guest at the Lehner home for the past week. Mrs. Washburn, who has hosts of friends in Sierra Madre, will be remembered as Miss Bertha Carson who was active in school life here for some years.

Autobiography Of Dr. Campbell Just From Press

"Transplanted Heather" is the fitting title of a book just from the Doubleday-Doran press constituting the memoirs of Dr. Jas. Mann Campbell. The eight years that Dr. Campbell spent here as pastor of the Congregational Church, from 1905 to 1913, make the book one of peculiar interest to Sierra Madre folk.

The 86 years of Dr. Campbell's life, from his birth in Scotland to his passing at Claremont in 1926, embraced a remarkable range of experience. The book was dictated by Mr. Campbell to his daughter, Miss Mae Campbell, after he had lost his sight.

The first copy of the book received from the publishers was brought here by Miss Campbell on Wednesday. A more extended review of it will appear in the News soon. Friends who may wish a copy may leave orders at the News office.

Bosch Appoints G. I. Farman Local Agent for Radio

G. I. Farman announces this week that the Sierra Madre Electric Company has taken the local agency for Bosch all-electric radio sets. The connection was formed some weeks ago, but he has been unable until now to secure enough sets to supply the demand and keep samples in stock, too. Every set he was able to get was sold within about twenty-four hours.

The name of Bosch on electrical equipment has been a familiar guarantee of quality ever since automobiles became common. The company is putting out radio receivers that make all of them sit up and take notice.

Radiolas will continue as a leading line with the pioneer radio agency. Mr. Farman retains his agency for the Radio Corporation of America which represents the combined forces of several of the leading electrical manufacturers of the country.

Dr. Brooks Tells About Conditions Across the Water

Dr. Raymond Brooks of Pomona College gave a most interesting address on European conditions at the monthly family dinner of members of the Congregational Church Wednesday night. Dr. and Mrs. Brooks spent last year in Europe, part of the time traveling with the Sherwood Eddy Seminar group. He revealed a keen insight into industrial and social conditions which gave his hearers a great deal of food for thought. Afterward Mrs. Brooks was called upon and added some interesting impressions which she had gained in the course of her trip. The dinner was largely attended.

Phil Carter Says Big Bear Now Popular Place

Phillip C. Carter returned home this week from Big Bear Lake where he has spent the summer during the busy season at Carter's Camp. He reports a good year in the face of prevailing conditions. The lake resorts have been giving way gradually to the encroachment of privately owned cabins of which there are now several thousand in the immediate vicinity. With the improvement in roads many people drive up for the day, whereas the hardships of the old roads formerly made people think nothing less than a week's stay was worth while. Mr. Carter is again associated with W. F. Krumm, Studebaker agent at Monrovia.

On Tuesday, Oct. 30, Dr. Marie A. Everett of 153 Santa Anita Court returned from a five months trip east. Her itinerary included Chicago and Evanston, Ill., Milwaukee, Wis., Detroit, Boston and the New England states in general. During the months of July and August she found the weather extremely hot and together with the humidity characteristic of the Great Lakes region and the Atlantic sea coast, it was almost unbearable. There were hundreds of heat prostrations and many deaths and she considers herself fortunate indeed to pass through the heat period with no ill effects. She reports she is glad to get back to her home city, and is as much of a "booster" for Southern California as the "native daughter."

750 Members Is the Goal Of Red Cross

Dinner and Program This Evening to Start Campaign

Chapter to Sponsor First Aid Classes During the Year

Tonight the annual roll call of the Red Cross Chapter will be given a big sendoff with a dinner and entertainment in the social hall of the Congregational Church. Advance reservations insure a large attendance and presage a highly successful membership campaign.

Interest in tonight's program was greatly stimulated this week when Chairman W. R. Humphries received word that Douglass Moore, assistant manager of the San Francisco headquarters, would be present to give an address. L. E. Palmer will give a demonstration of first aid work. It is the purpose of the local chapter to organize first aid classes this year under the instruction of Mr. Palmer. Life saving for swimmers will also be taught during the summer.

Entertainment features for the evening will include songs by Leslie Gaze, violin solos by Elizabeth Morgridge, songs by Mrs. Howard Lieben, and quartet selections by J. C. Heasley, Joe R. Eastwood, David Buchan and Jack Buchan.

Dinner will be served continuously from 6 to 7 p. m. Mrs. A. F. Snell is in general charge of the dinner which will be prepared by the women of the church. Girl reserves will act as waiters, with Misses Muriel Tarr and Virginia Jones in charge.

Sierra Madre's quota this year is 750 members for the Red Cross chapter. Chairman Humphries and the directors are anxious to reach the goal as early in the campaign as possible and not let it drag along until Thanksgiving time, the end of the roll call period.

Local Band Sees Rocky Road Ahead

Added Interest Must Be Seen Or Organization Will Disband

"To be, or not to be"—that is the question confronting Director Leland Auer and interested members of the Sierra Madre band. Ever since the concert last summer, when the band made its first and only appearance (and creating a most favorable impression, by the way) interest has been lagging and at the last rehearsal only four members "turned out."

The reason for lack of interest is not altogether clear to older members of the band, but the fact remains that out of a potential membership of about twenty, only a small number of the younger men and boys who play well enough to be of material help to the band, have ever turned out.

Mr. Auer has freely given of his time and talents in the matter of leadership, and he accomplished what many thought was the impossible when he presented the band in concert last summer. But he can not be expected to enthrall over band rehearsals with only three or four members in attendance.

A meeting of all the members is called for next Monday night at the church, at which time the matter of keeping the organization intact will be full discussed. Every boy or young man in the city who can play any sort of instrument is urged to attend the meeting, and older people interested are also invited to be present with suggestions as to ways and means of perfecting a permanent organization. If the attendance Monday night warrants, future rehearsals dates will be scheduled. It certainly will be a matter of general regret if this organization decides to disband, and every effort should be made Monday night to insure its continuance as a going concern.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Jaques, 153 North Lima, had as guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carter of Covina.

Radio Shop Takes Quarters in New Kersting Building

George McRoberts and Don Hossford are as happy as a bride and groom in their new Radio Shop. They moved this week into the store room in the new Kersting building adjoining the News office. Attractive quarters have been fitted up, as the room is admirably adapted to the purpose. A low partition provides a work room in the rear, with abundant illumination from the skylight.

Political oratory, election returns and football games have made the radio more than ever a household necessity this fall. With the Majestic, Sparton and Crosley lines, the Radio Shop has been able to satisfy the taste and means of just about every radio fan.

The Order of St. Catherine of the Church of the Ascension will meet Tuesday evening, Nov. 13, at 7:30, at the home of Mrs. Mary Davis Goodfellow, 41 East Grand View. The evening will be devoted to sewing.

Legion Will Play Hosts On Monday

Armistice Day Dance and Card Party to Be Enjoyable

Baseball Game With the Merchants' Team Offers Thrills

With all stores observing a holiday, a baseball game in the afternoon and a carnival in the evening, next Monday will be observed as Armistice Day in Sierra Madre. The baseball game will take place on the Baldwin Avenue lot. Waverly Pratt has organized a team of Legionnaires, who will play what is left of the Sierra Madre Merchants. This promises to be one of the most thrilling games ever witnessed in Sierra Madre.

The Masonic Temple will be the scene of the evening festivities. The Legion Post will put on a dance and card party. There will be prizes for bridge and 500 as well as door prizes. This is the big event of the year to raise funds for the worthy work of the post. Those who attend will have a fine evening's entertainment and those who buy tickets will help a splendid cause.

John R. Musser, 87, father of R. B. Musser of 41 South Baldwin, was one of the oldest men in Sierra Madre to vote last Tuesday. He was at the polls bright and early.

His first vote was for Lincoln in 1864. Tuesday's ballot was cast for Hoover. He has never missed voting at a presidential election since he has had the right. In spite of his age he is still an enthusiast on political questions.

Mr. Musser, as many of his family, was engaged for years in mercantile enterprises. When younger he also held various political positions. His accounts of "old days" are most interesting.

Auxiliary Meets To Plan Program Of Cooperation

At its meeting last night the Auxiliary of the American Legion voted to accept the invitation of the Congregational Church and attend the Armistice services in a body next Sunday, co-operating with the American Legion. Also, suitable decoration of the graves of the World War veterans at the Sierra Madre cemetery will be carried out that day.

The Unit is further exemplifying its existence as an Auxiliary by assisting the Legion at its Carnival to be held at the Masonic Temple November 12, when they will have complete charge of the card party and refreshments.

Mrs. Stella Dennison has resigned as first vice president and Mrs. Elva Reavis, elected second vice president, automatically accepts that office. The Unit unanimously elected Mrs. Eva Layton its second vice president. The installation of the four officers who were absent at the previous meeting will occur Nov. 22, Mrs. Stewart acting as installing officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kehlet are the proud parents of a baby daughter, born on Sunday.

Community Players to Form Group

Drama Study and Production Will Be Taken Up Regularly

Volunteer Workers in Many Lines Will Have An Opportunity

Due to the broad interest in the spoken drama shown by a great number of people in Sierra Madre, a Community Theatre group has been organized, to be known as the Sierra Madre Community Players. Its objectives are study of the practical features of stage production, the discovery and development of local talent, and the production of various types of plays.

For those not particularly interested in appearing in a cast, other opportunities for activities will present themselves. These are along the lines of stage business, stage setting, lighting, costuming and directing. Anyone having the urge will have an outlet in this organization.

For those with histrionic inclinations this movement will provide a larger field of activity for a greater number of people than has been possible in the past. It is expected to have plays constantly in rehearsal and to establish a repertoire that will always be available for other organizations requiring entertainment of this nature. While money-making is not an objective, it is necessary to have a working fund for the purpose of purchasing books, renting costumes and meeting incidental expenses. Dues have been fixed at one dollar a year, which small sum will make equal opportunity possible. Membership in the group will entail no responsibilities other than each individual wishes to assume. Those wishing to contribute or support this enterprise may do so in whatever measure their interest suggests.

Officers are: Miss Edith Blumer, president; James N. Hawks, vice president and business manager; David S. Buchan, treasurer; Wilfred C. Gruit, secretary; Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger and Mrs. Harold Allen, with the officers, form the board of directors, any of whom will accept membership.

The Sierra Madre Community Players have entered a one-act play in the third annual tournament of one-act plays to be held in Santa Ana next February.

Basketball Puts In Claim for Its Place in the Sun

Basket ball in Sierra Madre started off with a bang when over twenty men reported for practice Thursday night at the Congregational Church court.

A local team captained by E. Smith played the Comrade Club team "off their feet," winning by a score of 18 to 7. The fast guarding by E. Smith and Elk seemed too much for the club boys, while the accurate passing of Roberts and W. Reitherman enabled H. Draman to run up a score of fourteen points. Draman proved that he knows basket ball, is a "dead shot" and would be an asset to most any team. Lineup: Locals, 18. Comrades, 7.

Reitherman If Brain (2)
Roberts c F. Lalone (3)
E. Smith rg W. Bandy
Elk (2) lg G. Scott
McBurney, (2) for E. Smith.

A local team has been entered in the Monrovia Merchants league which starts playing December 5. All who play basket ball are urged to come out and try for the team. A local league is also being formed, which will enable most of the candidates to gain actual playing experience.

REV. FRANK D. MOSS RETURNS FROM EAST

Rev. Frank G. Moss returned this week from Chicago where he has been spending the summer months. As he wrote the News a few weeks ago, he was determined to cast a vote for Hoover for president and Tuesday saw him on hand at the polling place. The many friends who made his acquaintance during his stay in Sierra Madre last year will regret to learn that he will not be here thru the winter. He will make his home in Pasadena with his daughter, Mrs. Collins.

Passionist Missions to Be Conducted

Priests of the Local Community in Northern Diocese

Beginning Sunday, November 11, the three Passionist Fathers stationed in Sierra Madre will begin a series of missions in the Monterey-Fresno Diocese. They will be engaged in this work for about a month. A "mission" consists of a series of sermons of instructions for one or two weeks, according to the size of the parish. In the larger parishes the mission usually lasts for two weeks, the first week for the women and the second for the men, and as a rule, two priests are engaged in this work.

The morning services consist of Mass and sermon. The first morning service is held at about 5:30 for the benefit of the working people and a second service is conducted at about 8 o'clock for the others. The topic at the earlier service is always on the Passion of Jesus Christ, and at the later service alternate instructions are given on the duties implied in the Ten Commandments and in the sufferings of the Saviour. The evening services begin at about 7:30 and the sermons usually deal with the great truths of eternity, such as Death, Judgment, Heaven, Hell, Sin, the Passion, etc.

As can be seen from the above, the Passionist Fathers devote a major part of the mission to the preaching of the Passion, hence their name. At the beginning of his career as a Passionist, each member takes a solemn vow to God that he will "use a diligent endeavor" to keep alive in the minds and hearts of the faithful a loving and practical remembrance of the Passion of Jesus Christ.

Fathers Edwin and Leander will conduct the mission at St. Patrick's Church, Watsonville, from November 11th to 25th, and Father Angelo will preach at St. Anne's Church, Porterville, from Nov. 11th to 18th and at St. Joseph's Church, Selma, from November 18th to 25th. On Nov. 25, Fathers Angelo and Edwin begin a two-weeks' mission at St. John's Cathedral, Fresno, and Father Leander will begin his work on the 25th for one week at San Carlo's Church, Monterey, and on December 2nd begin another mission at St. Joseph's Church, Capitola, until December 9th.

The corner stone of the new chamber of commerce building at Baldwin Park contains the names of 1500 citizens who contributed money, labor or material to the building.

Is This Clear?

The following is the copy of a letter received by a life-insurance man from a new client:

Dear Sir: Sorry I will not except the policy which I told you before I did not tell you to give such a policy and I don't want any policy at the present time, I didn't tell you to pay any money to the company and I haven't got nothing to do with them so please do not annoy me any more with policies I can't do nothing for you now I am telling for the last time I don't want no policy and I haven't got othing to do with the company I didnt ask you for no policy so please do not annoy.

Sincerely your, Mr. Horowitz.

P. S. I didn't tell you to write me a $3000 dollar policy so now I dont want any other policies and you didnt ask me you should pay for the policy and you didnt ask me if I will except the policy so now it is your hard luck, I never heard of any man he should pay for a policy before the client wants to except it so you cant tell me any different so do what ever you want I do not want the policy.—Schenectady Union Star.

Hoover to Receive the Two Millionth Atwater Kent

The two millionth Atwater Kent radio set, destined to go to the winner of the presidential election, was turned out by the Atwater Kent manufacturing company on October 28, according to information received here by the Sierra Madre Hardware Company.

This set, the first two-millionth receiver to be produced by any radio manufacturer, is the compact, simplified Model 40, operating direct from house current, with one dial and single volume control. In a statement announcing the production of the set Mr. Kent said: "It is naturally a source of gratification to me to feel that our company has reached the two million mark in the production of radio receiving sets. I am doubly gratified by the fact that the second million sets have been made within the short space of two years. Our first millionth set came out of the factory on December 3, 1926. Our total of two million to date have been produced in less than six years."

'Wings' Here For Showing At Wistaria

Great War Feature Film Tells Graphic Story of Air Fighting

"Wings," which opened last night at the Wistaria Theatre will continue tonight and tomorrow night. Manager Meyer realized that this greatest of war pictures would attract such large patronage that three nights would be required to accommodate his patrons. It will also have the usual Saturday matinee. An oddity called "Winged Death" is also included in the program.

Drama, spectacle and unequalled camera effects are the outstanding features promised in "Sunrise," the Fox special dealing with the contrast between fast city life and rural virtue, which will come Sunday.

Billie Dove has the most emotional role in any picture of recent months as the heroine of "The Night Watch," a First National picture coming Tuesday.

"The Sawdust Paradise," a dramatic tale of a struggling carnival, ballyhoo men, grifters, diving girls, and a placid, sweet-faced old man, who befriends humanity and one little girl in particular, is Esther Ralston's new Paramount starring picture shown Thursday only.

McCormic in Recital at the Philharmonic

Young American Singer Wins Unique Honor in French Capital

Mary McCormic, the charming young American soprano, who will appear next Tuesday evening, November 13, at the Philharmonic Auditorium under L. E. Behymer's management, is one of the few American artists who has won outstanding recognition in European music centers.

Her career has been, in a sense, meteoric, for no other young artist of the present day has reached stellar roles in the brief space of time in which Mary has climbed the ladder of fame. Petite Mary is the idol of the fickle Parisian audiences, who, however they may vacillate in other directions remain true to Mary, and her appearances in the French capital are hailed as important events.

A signal honor, and one that has never been accorded an American singer, is her selection by Jules Carre, veteran director of the Paris Opera Comique, to create the lead in Messager's latest opera. It is well known that it is much more difficult to obtain an appearance at the Comique than at the Grand Opera of Paris where she has already won great triumphs. She returns to Monte Carlo for the January season and later on she will appear as soloist in Vienna. A discovery of Mary Garden, Miss McCormic possesses

Officers of Eastern Star Are Elected

Mrs. Agnes Tyree to Head Local Chapter Coming Year

Officers of Sierra Madre Chapter No. 299, Order of the Eastern Star, were chosen at the regular chapter meeting held Monday night in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Agnes Tyree was advanced to the position of worthy matron for the coming year. The other line officers were also promoted. Mrs. Harriet Buckingham will become associate matron and Mrs. Leila Roberts conductress.

Miss Dana Graham was chosen associate conductress. Mrs. Nina Ralsback was elected secretary and Mrs. Lila Kendall was re-elected treasurer.

Convers L. Twycross was chosen worthy patron of the chapter. However, upon being notified of his election he announced it would be impossible for him to take the office in addition to other work. So it will be necessary to hold another election unless he reconsiders his announced decision.

There is a difference. Bologna is in Italy. Boloney is in New York.—Hubbard (Ore.) Herald.

The greatest "Hook-up" of all

You sit down of an evening before "the best set in the world." You turn a switch, a dial—and—marvelous!—you're getting a program from one of the local stations. You swing out a bit and you get a station five hundred miles away. Another turn of the dial and music "comes in" over perhaps thousands of miles.

But do you realize the vast scope of the hook-up that selects for you any one of the 18,500,000 telephones in the United States?

You place a local call and in a moment you are talking across the city. Another, and you talk across the continent. Swing out a bit and many points in Europe, Canada and Mexico are within instant reach of your voice.

Yes, it's the greatest hook-up of all. The creation of over half a century of concentrated research and development for the upbuilding of the world's greatest communication service—a service that is personal, that is fast, dependable and economical.

Woman's Club Notes

Full Attendance Desired at

Important Club Meeting—

Miss Harriet Grant, president of the Woman's Club, is very anxious that the club members attend 100 per cent, if possible, the luncheon on next Wednesday, November 14, at 12:30, in the club house. Reservations to be made with Mrs. Dickson, Red 68, not later than Monday afternoon, November 12. The luncheon hour will be devoted to business of prime importance to every member. Group singing of old songs popular during the war will lend a patriotic note. Reports of the last president's council will be given.

A real treat is in store for the afternoon program. Mr. Leslie Gaze, internationally known singer, and now a resident of Sierra Madre, will sing. Reginald Pole, who has taken the part of Christus, in the Pilgrim Play for several seasons past, will speak on "The Relation of Speech and Music." He is a poet, composer, dramatist, director and actor; also internationally known.

Mrs. Fred Griebonow, chairman of the Art Section, states that the visit to the Cotton studio in Glendale has been postponed due to a change in Mr. Cotton's plans, and that on next Tuesday the Art Section will visit instead the Jules Kiezlet's studio in Pasadena which was opened recently. Please call Mrs. Griebonow if you wish reservations to be made, Black 173.

Thursday afternoon, Nov. 1, the Drama Section, with Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger presiding, presented a program of unusual interest, both presentations being prize winners. Mrs. Wm. Lees reviewed "In Abraham's Bosom," by Paul Green, while Miss Virginia Jones presented Kelly's "Behold the Bridegroom," the Pulitzer prize-winner of this year. Mrs. C. A. Greese gave a biographical sketch of Kelly's life. Tea was served at the close of the session.

All members having November birthdays please phone Mrs. Dickson, Red 68.—Mrs. J. H. Robertson, press chairman.

The Garden Section of the Woman's Club met on Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. F. S. Ackley, 665 West Central. The meeting was held indoors and the spacious rooms were well filled. The chairman, Mrs. A. R. Hinton, called the meeting to order, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The chairman asked all who were contemplating buying Christmas trees for their homes this year to consider buying a living tree instead of the usual cut tree. Mrs. A. A. Halsey was appointed chairman of a committee she should herself select to look into the matter of obnoxious signboards and refuse along the streets.

The morning program consisted of the following: Mrs. George Blakesley gave a short article on the morning glory, which is being talked of as the state flower, ending with a delightful little poem by Edgar Guest.

Mrs. J. M. Campbell read an extract from an article in the North American Magazine by Struthers Burt, entitled "Our Blighted Landscape," after which Mrs. F. L. C. Roess gave a most interesting paper on bulbs, their planting and care. She said there are a few rules necessary for the successful grower of bulbs, although there were a few exceptions to this rule, viz: plant three times their own depth unless in heavy soil, then twice their depth. Second, have the bed prepared long before planting time with old fertilizer (bone meal being best), and, third, after blooming, continue to water until the foliage begins to turn yellow, after which they should be allowed to dry down and cure. Then they may be dug up, allowed to dry a few days and finally stored away in, or with sand in a dry place until wanted for planting again.

Lillies of the Valley bulbs if planted in a pot December 1, kept watered in a dark cellar, will bloom for Christmas.

After luncheon, served at small tables about the rooms and inspection of the grounds and flowers outside, we were again called to order by the chairman and the afternoon speaker, Miss Mary Potter, of Cornell University, was introduced. Her subject, "Design in Small Gardens," was most interesting and delightfully given.

Many drawings were shown to illustrate her talk. It was the wish of all the members present to hear more from Miss Potter in the near future. After the exchange of different bulbs and flowers brought in, the group was invited by Miss Leah Fletcher to visit her garden, which many did. The meeting adjourned to meet December 5 at the home of Mrs. W. J. Lawless, 506 West Grand View.—Nelle B. Campbell, Secy.

TWO RESIGNATIONS

A COUPLE of resignations right now would do more for the progress and peace of Sierra Madre than anything else that could happen.

For a good many years the News has taken no part in local political campaigns.
It has watched administrations come and go, and the printed record will prove its disinterested, impartial attitude in reporting and commenting on municipal affairs.

Now a situation has arisen which cannot be disregarded. The two senior members of the city council appear to have won a majority control. As a matter of fact their advantage is only apparent. They have maneuvered themselves into an impasse.
They have been acting on ill-advised counsel. It will probably get them into difficulty on any course but a complete reversal of policy.

Talk of recall is heard. Threats of injunction suits or other litigation are made, apparently in dead earnest. These come, not from enemies, but from friends of Central Avenue opening and improvement whose right to a voice in that project cannot be denied.

The News is for peace in the community, even at the cost of a battle. This is written early in the week and without possible knowledge of what will be said or done at the meeting of citizens called for Thursday night. The suggestion here made is not "inspired" or suggested from any outside source.

After studying the situation carefully, the News is convinced that Messrs. Belohlavek and Isaacs will add more to their personal prestige by resigning at once than by trying to retain control of the council. That course would effectually dispose of all charges of selfish interest, and of the possibility of recall or litigation, and would contribute materially to hastening completion of the Central Avenue project.

Central Avenue Must Go Through!

BUILD IT UP

MORE than a little cordial approval has been voiced for the recent agitation in the News for rejuvenation of the Chamber of Commerce. It would be a waste of time to argue over who is responsible for the present situation. Three essential facts admit of no argument:

1. The chamber of commerce is not meeting the needs of the community.
2. The chamber of commerce is not getting enough support to enable it to carry on effective work.
3. Sierra Madre needs a live chamber of commerce.

What is to be done about it? Just this:
By tradition or by-laws (try and find 'em) the season for election of new officers and directors is now here. Now is the time to wipe the slate and start all over.

Business men and property owners who believe Sierra Madre should have a live chamber of commerce ought to get their names on the rolls right now, pay their dues and take a hand in the reorganization.
It is worse than useless to stay on the outside and criticize when every loyal citizen has a definite responsibility for work and support.

More than one thousand million packages open space that the parking problem has not yet become really acute.—Punch.

Your help will do it!

Dear Folks:—

Your membership and co operation is needed
now. The Red Cross with its humanitarian work wants five million members. Its activities are local and national. Sixty six disasters, tornadoes, floods, etc., called the American Red Cross into action this year.

part of our local work this coming year. Join Now!

LET'S GET MEMBERS!

Another roll call, another hustle and bustle for a most worthy cause. Five million members are needed — that means four out of every hundred of the population. Should not be a hard task—in fact there's no work as pleasant as doing unto others as you would have them do unto you. In our own little Sierra Madre, a most ambitious program is being launched for the coming year: First Aid classes, the training of swimmers in methods of resuscitating drowning persons after they have been taken from the water; help to ex-service men and their dependents; local relief under Red Cross auspices.

Your membership is needed!

The Sierra Madre Chapter of the American Red Cross wishes to thank the publishers of

ALWAYS A LEADER

Sierra Madre in the past has established many records for doing more than her bit.

During the time of war, she made a name for herself in the Liberty Bond Drives. In the matter of memberships and the gathering of funds to be used by the Red Cross in time of disaster she has stood at the top of the list.

It is the wish of the directors of the local chapter to try and reach the quota in the shortest possible time, thereby establishing another record for the Queen of the Suburbs.

Team-work, hustle and the heart in the work will do this.
So, folks, let's go and make this annual roll call a record-breaker.

A seventy-year-old canyon resident made the announcement a few days ago that she had registered at the last possible moment and that she was able to vote for had been a busy one, rearing a family and that she had given no thought to the ballot heretofore, but that her decision was suddenly made when a neighbor casually pointed out that she was asleep, and not only asleep but actually snoring, that this was the time to rise and cast a vote for Hoover.

the organization, of which he is director, would again win the con-

Robert W. Summerhill returned to Sierra Madre on Saturday after spending the past four months in the east. Most of the time he was visiting his old home in west-

$140,000 for an 80-foot street, and $118,000 for a 65-foot street, assuming $16,000 aid from the county.

Actual cost of improvements west of Baldwin Avenue would be $124,000, assuming $17,000 county aid.

All these figures are for improvements only. The cost of condemnation proceedings, including payment for land taken for widening and for opening the road thru to the west, should be additional. Until an appraisal is made, no estimate could be given for this expense.

Under Mattoon Act procedure, said Mr. Hanneman, the costs would be spread over a district extending half way from Central to Grand View on the north, and half way to Live Oak Avenue on the south. This would be assessed on a tax valuation basis, on land only. This was estimated at $12.22 per $100 valuation for the uniform 80-foot street, and $9.51 per $100 on the basis of a 65-foot street east of Baldwin.

Engineer Gierlich explained that he is now preparing plans for the uniform 80-foot street under council's orders. His present data and plans can be used if a 65-foot street is desired. Chairman Smith pointed out that in the present stage the council can order the change.

When called upon to discuss the legal phases of the project, City Attorney Baker said all personalities should be kept out of the discussion. They were not only distasteful to him but should never be allowed to jeopardize such an important project. He then analyzed the procedure under the Mattoon act, with special reference to the three classes of bonds provided for. He pointed out the dangers in the act which are recognized by its author and by leading attorneys, investment and title companies. These center almost entirely in the immediate possession bonds which may be used in connection with condemnation proceedings. The liabilities which the city would assume upon issuing such bonds he regarded as unsafe.

Considering the matter of protests, Mr. Baker said it is a well established principle of law that the council is merely the agent for the property owners, and should be responsive to their wishes. However, he said, a 51-per cent protest could be overruled by a four-fifths vote of the council.

Dr. W. W. Murphy offered a resolution protesting against the tearing up of the present paving on West Central Avenue and the resulting expense of new paving. This was adopted by a roaring vote.

Councilman Henry Isaacs who sat in the front row had tried at various times thru the meeting to secure recognition for Attorney Robert Wygant, whom Attorney Baker said he had invited to be present and address the meeting. He now renewed the request, saying he did not like to have the meeting take action on any question without hearing Mr. Wygant. He and Councilman Belohlavek said they believed if the people thoroughly understood the Mattoon Act they would feel differently about the project.

Tom Flather wanted to know whom Mr. Wygant represented and Mr. Isaacs said himself and Mr. Belohlavek. Mr. Flather tried in vain to get over a motion denying the floor to Mr. Wygant on the ground that he is not a local taxpayer and has no interest here. Harold D. Carew said he came to the meeting seeking information and thought fair play required that Mr. Wygant be heard.

When Chairman Smith succeeded in restoring order so that Mr. Wygant could be heard, he said he would not take time after three hours of talking to explain the Mattoon Act. He advised the property owners to talk frankly with the councilmen who, he was sure, would be responsive to the wishes of the public.

W. A. Evans jumped up and said Mr. Wygant just did not know what he was talking about. He declared the property owners had not been able to get a hearing and in particular that Councilmen Isaacs and Belohlavek had taken a defiant attitude in trying to put over a program to suit themselves.

Earl Topping kept demanding from the back of the room that the councilmen put themselves on record as willing to do what the people wanted. Mr. Belohlavek said he would try to meet the popular wish if he could find out what it really was, and Mr. Isaacs said he would respect the wishes of the entire city.

H. E. Allen presented a resolution lauding the services of Mr. Baker in steering the city on a safe legal course, in keeping the city free from legal attack and winning all court actions brought by the city. It further expressed disapproval and resentment at the action of the council majority in refusing his advice on the proceedings with his resultant resignation as special counsel. This resolution was adopted by another noisy vote.

Howard Lieben said he thought the meeting ought to go on record as favoring the original project of extending Central Avenue to the west, but without repaving West Central or making East Central more than 65 feet wide. This also was adopted.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

It is not intended in this column to injure the feelings of anyone, particularly "one of the boys". However, the star ball players of the department that failed to show up last Saturday afternoon at the ball grounds had better speak easy when offering their alibis. We had to "ring in" two of the first team's star players, and it happened to be their "off" day, so they didn't do much hitting. We can win unless we have our regular line-up.

We are entitled to this excuse for losing last Saturday's game. Chief Richards played a wonderful game at first base, missing only fifteen out of eighteen chances. He also looked good at the bat, just having to run to first base once. He ran so gracefully that time, that Mother Earth trembled. He said he couldn't run fast because he didn't have his bow tie on.

Nevertheless Mrs. Richards enjoyed his efforts and tho't him wonderful.

Gordon McMillen showed talent back of the plate and worked well with his pitchers. Although he couldn't run as fast as Richards he got further around the bases.

As a pitcher, Jim Heasley can mix marmalade. His heaves were good for an inning or so, when he was replaced by Bob Babbitt, who was nothing short of marvelous. He had the "second team" swinging at 'em like they were swatting butterflies. On the following day, he was unable to hold the baby in his right arm.

At third base we had Frank Lovell who threw them over to first to catch a man going to second, and continually slid into second to avoid a collision when running bases. His wife, also, tho't she had a wonderful man. I wonder if she knows that at the recent police entertainment Nick Harris mistook Frank for Chief Richards' son. We are wondering who the joke is on. Whether Nick tho't the chief was an old man, or whether he tho't Frank a little boy. It was learned that the chief resented this suggestion and we take it that he wouldn't have a son like Lovell.

Coming again to the ball game—Vern Udell played well as a short stop. His stop was so short that he seldom moved, therefore he was well placed.

The star of the firemen's lineup was noticeably H. A. Thew who removed his glasses every time he needed to see the ball, and despite this fact he held the bat so still that Freddy Lalone (opposing pitcher) hit his bat for three consecutive safe bingles, and then caught him asleep at first.

Lee Hibbs came on the ground to be entered in the game in the last inning. He struck three times and went home. On the strength of this well played game, the firemen now issue a challenge to any team in Sierra Madre. Waverly Pratt and his "battle-axes" please take notice.

Whether the Central Avenue project goes thru or not or whether or not it rains this evening, the S. M. V. F. are due at yet town hall prepared to pull out at 7:30 sharp. CHRISTMAS MONEY will give you a Hoover

OU have told yourself so many times that you would like to have a Hoover. And here you are with your Christmas money in your hand—isn't that the opportunity you have just been waiting for!

You can telephone and have a Hoover sent up for a demonstration first, if you wish. Or you can simply specify which model you prefer—the de luxe Model 700 at $75 or the popular priced Model 543 at $59.50. Both have the famous cleaning principle, "Positive Agitation," which enables The Hoover to remove more dirt per minute than any other cleaner.

Even if your Christmas check is just a very small one, it will cover the down payment of $6.25 on your Hoover. The remaining payments you make in small monthly amounts—which you can easily save out of your household money. If you have an old cleaner, of any make, we will also give you a liberal allowance for it.
